WOMEN RULE COUNTRY SONGS ROOST

All eyes are fixed on the ladies on Hot Country Songs, as Taylor Swift logs a third straight week at No. 1 for "Our Song" (28.7 million impressions) while Carrie Underwood hooks the Greatest Gainer with "All-American Girl," the second single from her "Carnival Ride" set.

"Girl" gains 4.1 million impressions and hops 28-22. Swift's chart-topper follows Underwood's three-week siege at No. 1 with "So Small," marking the longest run atop the list by solo female artists since Underwood alone logged six straight weeks at the summit with "Jesus, Take the Wheel" starting in the Jan. 21, 2006, issue. Solo females have not dominated longer than six consecutive weeks since Connie Smith spent eight weeks at No. 1 with "Once a Day" in 1964. Before Swift captured the top spot, Underwood was the only solo female to lead the chart since Sara Evans spent two weeks at No. 1 with "Real Fine Place to Start" in September 2005. -Wade Jessen

NO 'CRIME' AS NICHOLS MAKES SPEEDY START

Country traditionalist Joe Nichols inks his highest bow on 2007, issue. It peaked at No. 17 on the Nov. 10 chart. Hot Country Songs, as "It Ain't No Crime" takes the Hot Shot Debut at No. 45. Known mostly as a formidable ballad singer, Nichols quickens the pace on this midtempo, mind-your-own-business theme, which arrives with 1.4 million audience impressions at 50 monitored stations.

The new track is the second single from Nichols' "Real Things" album. It tops his previous best start, set when lead single "Another Side of You" opened at No. 50 in the May 19, As post-holiday rotations returned to more normal patterns during the tracking week, all 60 titles bullet this issue. That includes Taylor Swift's "Our Song" spending a fifth week in Hot Country Songs' penthouse, the most for any solo female since Carrie Underwood spent five weeks at the top with "Before He Cheats" starting in the Nov. 11, 2006, issue. Swift is the 12th solo female to spend at least five weeks at No. 1 since Billboard launched the chart in 1944. — Wade Jessen

SIXTH WEEK PUTS SWIFT IN ELITE COMPANY

Newcomer Taylor Swift caps Hot Country Songs for a sixth week, the chart's longest No. 1 streak since Carrie Underwood began a six-week run with "Jesus, Take the Wheel" in January 2006. In the 18-year-old Nielsen BDS era, Swift is the third solo female to notch six weeks atop the chart. Faith Hill became the first in the Nielsen BDS era to do so when "Breathe" collected a sixth week at No. 1 in the Jan. 9, 2000, issue. Swift is the fifth solo female to claim six weeks or more since Billboard launched the country list in 1944. That first happened when Kitty Wells' "It Wasn't God Who Made Honky Tonk Angels" led for six weeks in 1952, and again when Connie Smith's "Once a Day" logged eight weeks in 1964. The latter remains the all-time record among solo female artists. Swift also posts the Hot Shot Debut at No. 52 with "Picture to Burn," with 648,000 impressions at 16 monitored signals.

RADIO AIR MAILS PAISLEY'S 'LETTER' TO NO. 1

Brad Paisley extends his current No. 1 streak to six, excluding holiday titles, as "Letter to Me" bolts 5-1 on Hot Country Songs. He is the first artist to string together that many charttoppers since Toby Keith ended a run of seven No. 1s with "Who's Your Daddy" in December. "Letter" takes the largest leap to the top by a solo male since Jack Ingram's "Wherever You Are" surged 5-1 in May 2006. Paisley's hike is the biggest of his career and the best for any artist since Taylor Swift's "Our Song" vaulted 6-1 in the Dec. 14 issue.

Pop-turned-country singer lewel takes the Hot Shot Debut at No. 50 with "Stronger Woman," her second country chart appearance. In 1999, she peaked at No. 56 in a duet with Merle Haggard when the pair reprised his 1984 No. 1 "That's the Way Love Goes." Among females making their solo chart debuts, Jewel's bow is the highest since Kellie Pickler hit No. 48 with "Red High Heels" in -Wade Jessen September 2006.

TOPSY-TURVY TOP 10 MAKES ROOM FOR FOUR

With four songs crossing into the top 10, that part of Hot Country Songs gets the biggest simultaneous infusion of new titles in nearly a decade. Led by Alan Jackson's 11-7 hop with "Small Town Southern Man," the chart hasn't seen this many new top 10 entrants since since six songs reconfigured the Nov. 21, 1998, chart. The other three top 10 newcomers are Carrie Underwood's "All-American Girl" (12-8), Chuck Wicks' "Stealing Cinderella" (13-9) and Craig Morgan's

Of the four new top 10 songs, Jackson's blue collar anthem takes the biggest audience gain, up 2.9 million impressions. Lower on the chart, Oklahoman Keith Anderson claims his highest debut, as "I Still Miss You" snares the Hot Shot Debut at No. 44 (1.2 million impressions). That tops his prior best, set when debut single "Pickin' Wildflowers" opened at No. 47 in 2004.

SINGLE MARKS STRAIT'S CAREER-BEST START

Already a 2007 Country Music Hall of Fame honoree, George Strait finds new glory with a career-high bow on Hot Country Songs with "I Saw God Today," taking the Hot Shot Debut at No. 19. Serviced to radio Feb. 4, the song draws a whopping 11 million audience impressions at 91 monitored stations during the Feb. 4-10 tracking week. Strait's prior best start was No. 30, achieved twice with "You'll Be There" (April 2005) and "It Just Comes Natural" (October 2006).

Strait becomes only the fifth artist in the 18-year Nielsen BDS era to debut inside the top 20, and his new track is the seventh title to arrive inside that part of the country list during that frame. It is also this chart's > highest start since Garth Brooks opened at No. 1 with "More Than a Memory" in the Sept. 15, 2007, issue. This is Strait's 107th entry on the list, where he leads all charttoppers. The new song introduces "Troubadour," Strait's 25th set of new songs for MCA Nashville, excluding Christmas albums, due April 1. — Wade Jessen

ATKINS' SET YIELDS FOURTH CHART-TOPPER

Rodney Atkins notches his fourth consecutive chart-topper, all from his album "If You're Going Through Hell," as an increase of 2.6 million audience impressions triggers a 3-1 rise for "Cleaning This Gun (Come On In Boy)." Atkins' No. 1 run is the format's second-best active streak, trailing only the six straight chart champs in the past two years by Brad Paisley, whose "Letter to Me" gets jumped by "Gun." Atkins began his No. 1 roll in August 2006 with "If You're Going Through Hell (Before the Devil Even Knows)" and followed with "Watching You" in January 2007 and "These Are My People" last August. The set, which crowned Top Country Albums upon its debut in the Aug. 5, 2006, issue, is the first to produce four No. 1 Country songs in more than five years (see Hot Box, page 37). It has sold 1.2 million copies and has remained in the album list's top 30 for all but two of its 83 chart weeks (21-19, up 19%).

FLATTS, PAISLEY LIGHT UP SINGLES CHART

Two of country's heaviest hitters, Rascal Flatts and Brad Paisley, post solid debuts with new singles from chart-topping albums. The former opens at No. 42 with "Every Day," the third hit from "Still Feels Good." "Take Me There" topped the list for three weeks in the fall, while "Winner at a Losing Game" spent four weeks at No. 2 last month. The set led Top. Country Albums for four weeks and has sold 1.7 million copies. "Every" is the act's 29th chart hit, most by a group this decade. At No.

48, Paisley seeks a seventh consecutive No. 1 with "I'm Still a Guy." The light-hearted cut is the fourth single from "5th Gear," which led the album list for four weeks in July and has moved 800,000 copies. "Guy," which garners airplay at a chart-best 38 new signals, follows the album's No. 1s: "Ticks," "Online" and "Letter to Me." Rodney Atkins meanwhile locks and loads a second week at No. 1 with "Cleaning This Gun (Come On In Boy)," leading by 2.9 million in audience. —Gary Trust

'GIRL,' YOU KNOW IT'S TRUE: CARRIE'S NO. 1

Carrie Underwood claims her fifth charttopper on Hot Country Songs, as "All-American Girl" takes the third-largest gain (up 3.6 million impressions) and surges 5-1. With 30.7 million impressions during the tracking week, "Girl" follows Underwood's previous No. 1 stands with "Jesus, Take the Wheel," "Before He Cheats," "Wasted" and "So Small." The new No. 1 improves Underwood's standing among the format's females with the most weeks atop the chart during the 18-year Nielsen BDS era, where she's in second place with 18 weeks. Faith Hill tops that list with 30

Since Underwood first led the chart two years ago, she's tied with Kenny Chesney for the second-most No. 1 songs (five apiece), a tally led by Brad Paisley, who has six charttoppers during that frame. All three artists are stabled with the Sony BMG Nashville label group. -Wade Jessen

'SMALL' ENDS JACKSON'S WIDEST NO. 1 GAP

Ending his longest stretch without a No. 1 single, Alan Jackson roars back to the penthouse on Hot Country Songs as "Small Town Southern Man" becomes his 23rd chart-topper, his first in more than four years. His longest prior dry spell atop the chart was 20 months. With 30.4 million impressions during the tracking week, the lead single from Jackson's "Good Time" (still No. 1 on Top Country Albums) gains 1.1 million impressions (2-1), halting a two-week stand at No. 1 by labelmate Carrie Underwood's "All-American Girl." It's the fourth time this decade that one Arista Nashville artist has replaced another at No. 1, the first time since Brad Paisley's "When I Get Where I'm Going" followed Underwood's "Jesus, Take the Wheel" in the March 4, 2006, issue. Jackson is now second to George Strait (24) among artists with the most No. 1s in the Nielsen BDS era; Tim —Wade Jessen McGraw is in third (22).

STRAIT'S SONG RACES WITH 'GOD' SPEED

Country's all-time No. 1 king clocks his fastest top five time in almost a decade as George Strait's "I Saw God Today" rises 7-4 in its seventh chart week. That's his quickest climb since "I Just Want to Dance With You" needed seven weeks to crack the top five in the May 30, 1998, issue.

In the 18-year Nielsen BDS era, Strait has made better time on four occasions. His quickest sprint to that part of the chart happened in the Dec. 1, 1990, issue, when

"I've Come to Expect It From You" did so in

Meanwhile, Taylor Swift is the third solo female this decade to place four songs from a debut album in the top 10, as "Picture to Burn" spikes 11-8. (Carrie Underwood did so in 2007, following Gretchen Wilson's feat in 2005.) Also new to the top 10 is Phil Vassar's "Love Is a Beautiful Thing," his eighth top 10 and first since "Last Day of My Life" rose to No. 2 in June 2006. - Wade Jessen

TV RUNNER-UP SECOND TO NONE AT RADIO

Although Donald Trump gave Trace Adkins the boot on the final episode of NBC's "Celebrity Apprentice" during the tracking week, Adkins gets a big raise and a corner office from country radio, as "You're Gonna Miss This" becomes his third No. 1 (32.5 million impressions).

Better-known for his uptempo fare, Adkins' first ballad to top Hot Country Songs comes 13 months after he closed a 10-year gap between his first two No. 1s. That happened when "Ladies Love Country Boys" led for two weeks starting with the March 10, 2007, chart. He first led the list with the gritty "(This Ain't) No Thinkin' Thing" in the April 5, 1997, issue. Adkins has 10 other top 10s besides his three chart-toppers, three of which peaked at No. 2.

On Top Country Albums, Adkins' big week at country radio and the climax of his "Apprentice" run push "American Man: Greatest Hits, Vol. II" 10-3 with Greatest Gainer applause (17,000 copies, up 2,000). -Wade Jessen

FAST MOVE MAKES 'NAME' FOR UNDERWOOD

As Trace Adkins' "You're Gonna Miss This" logs a second week atop Hot Country Songs, Carrie Underwood grabs Airpower with "Last Name" (21-17). Her third single from "Carnival Ride" dents the top 20 in its fourth chart week, the quickest top 20 trek for a solo female since Underwood herself became the only one to debut inside that part of the chart in the Nielsen BDS era, starting in January 1990. That happened when "So Small" arrived at No. 20 in the Dec. 1, 2007, issue.

Also, Underwood's Sony BMG Nashville stable mate Kenny Chesney snares the Greatest Gainer with "Better as a Memory" (25-21). The fourth track from his "Poets & Pirates" set gains 3.4 million impressions in its third chart week. To find another track with a like number of chart weeks, you'd need to drop down to Gary Allan's "Learning How to Bend" and Garth Brooks' "Midnight Sun," which crack the top 40 at Nos. 38 and 39, respectively. —Wade Jessen

ADKINS STRETCHES CHART-TOPPING REIGN

Up 994,000 audience impressions in its 19th chart week on Hot Country Songs, Trace Ackins' "You're Gonna Miss This" claims a third week at No. 1, his longest chart-topping stretch. He spent one week at the summit with "(This Ain't) No Thir.kin' Thing" in 1997, and "Ladies Love Country Eoys" logged two weeks at No. 1 last year. The new song outpaces this issue's No. 2 title, George Straids "I Saw God Today," by 765,000 impressions.

Kenny Chesney flies 21-15 with "Better As a Memory," which snares the Greatest Gainer (up 4 million impressions) in its fourth week. The fourth single from "Just Who I Am: Poets & Pirates" finishes the April 7-13 tracking week with 13.7 million impressions and leaps over the Airpower hurdle. Nielsen BDS reports spins at all but two of the 112 stations monitored for this chart. Alan Jackson snares the Hot Shot Debut at No. 42 with "Good Time," the second single and title track from his new album, amassing 1.7 million impressions at 34 monitored signals.

ANOTHER NO. 1 FOR FORMAT KING STRAIT

Nearly 26 years after he first topped the chart with "Fool Hearted Memory" in August 1982, George Strait widens his lead as the artist with the most No. 1s as "I Saw God Today" becomes his 43rd trip to the summit. Strait matched Conway Twitty's longt me lead of 40 No. 1 songs when "She Let Herself Go" topped the chart in January 2006 and took over the all-time slot when "Give It Away" ruled for two weeks in September 2006. His most recent No. 1 was "It lust Comes Natural" in February 2007. Alan Jackson's "Good Time" pockets the Greatest Gainer purse, up 2.9 million impressions in its second chart week (42-27). The second single/ title track from his new album logs spins at 78 of the 108 stations monitored for this chart. And Garth Brooks & Huev Lewis' "Workin' for a Livin' " re-enters the top 40 in its 19th week (49-40), fueled by tax-deadline airplay during the April 14-20 tracking week. The song peaked at No. 19. -Wade Jessen

NEW TOP 10 MAKES CHESNEY LEADING MAN

At a time when Kenny Chesney suffered a serious foot injury during a concert performance, quipping that his new single hops into the top 10 on Hot Country Songs might be just a tad too clever. However, this particular top 10 feat makes chart history, as "Better As a Memory" becomes his 24th top 10 song this decade, and breaks a tie with Tim McGraw (23).

The new top 10 punctuates Chesney's status as the artist with the format's longest active top 10 streak, which now stands at 21 (not counting holiday songs and unsolicited album cuts). The last country artist that nailed this many consecutive top 10 singles was Alan Jackson, who had a 27-song run between 1990 and 1998. Alabama also played the top 10 mark 42 straight times between 1980 and 1993, a run that culminated in 32 No. 1 songs during that span.

The last time Chesney peaked outside the top 10 happened when "Tin Man" stopped at No. 19 in the Oct. 20, 2001, issue.

LAMBERT TAKES AIM WITH 'GUNPOWDER'

With a pair of chart-toppers on Top Country Albums and three Academy of Country Music Awards nominations under her belt. feisty Texan Miranda Lambert also boasts Airpower honors for "Gunpowder & Lead" on Hot Country Songs (21-20). The third single from "Crazy Ex-Girlfriend" (No. 21 on Top Country Albums) draws 8.8 million impressions at all but one of the 108 stations monitored by Nielsen BDS for this chart and marks Lambert's seventh charted song. Although critically and commercially well-received, none of Lambert's singles have yet gained enough airplay consensus to crack the radio chart's top 10. Her highest so far is a No. 14 peak with "Famous in a Small Town," nominated in the ACM single of the year category. "Crazy Ex-Girlfriend" has an album of the year nod, and the female vocalist nominee is set to play the May 18 show, which will air on CBS.

RADIO EXTENDS ARNOLD'S CHART REACH

Arnold returns to Hot Country Songs for the first time in 25 years, as "To Life" snares the Hot Shot Debut at No. 49. Arnold becomes the only country artist in history to bow with a new track in each of the past seven decades, starting when "Each Minute Seems a Million Years" peaked at No. 5 in June 1945, on a chart then known as Billboard's Most Played Juke Box Folk Records. Arnold's most recent Hot Country Songs ink came with "The Blues Don't Care Who's Got 'Em" in March 1983. His country chart history touched the '90s when a duet with LeAnn Rimes of his signature song, "Cattle Call," spent two weeks on Billboard's Top Country Singles Sales in December 1999. Intended as a 90th-birthday tribute, label promotion of "To Life" began the week before Arnold died May 8 at age 89 (see Mileposts, page 60). Arnold topped the country singles chart 28 times between 1947 and 1968.

'WANT' NOT: SUGARLAND'S BEST SONG BOW

ALL SUMMER LONG

On the heels of the song's premiere on the May 18 Academy of Country Music Awards, Sugarland swipes the Hot Shot Debut and a career-high bow at No. 27 on Hot Country Songs with "All I Want to Do."

The duo's previous best start was when "Want To" popped on at No. 36 in the Aug. 12, 2006, issue. The track became Sugarland's first chart-topper, spending two weeks at No. 1 that December.

The new single starts with 6.5 million initial audience impressions at 77 of the 108 stations monitored for the chart, good for this issue's Greatest Gainer. Timed to appeal to tempo-hungry radio programmers as the warm months approach, the effervescent "Do" introduces the duo's third album, "Love on the Inside," due July 22. Sugarland won trophies for single and song of the year for "Stay" at the ACM shindig, which will rerun starting June 4 on GAC.

UNDERWOOD SCORES ANOTHER HAT TRICK

Carrie Underwood tops Hot Country Songs for a sixth time, as "Last Name" gains 2.9 million impressions and rises 5-1. No solo female has scored three chart-topping singles from the same album since Underwood herself did so with three tracks from "Some Hearts" (2006-07). Before Underwood's first triplet of "Jesus, Take the Wheel," "Before He Cheats" and "Wasted," Jo Dee Messina was the last woman to go the distance with three No. 1s from one album. She led with three songs from "I'm Alright" in 1998-99: "Bye Bve," the title track and "Stand Beside Me."

Rosanne Cash was the last solo female to send a quartet of tracks to the summit from the same album, with four songs from "King's Record Shop" in 1987-88. Cash's feat has yet to be matched, but Underwood came as close as one could on her "Some Hearts" run, when third single "Don't Forget to Remember Me" peaked at No. 2 in -Wade Jessen August 2006.

CHESNEY FAMILIAR WITH CHART'S TOP SLOT

Fueled by an increase of 2.1 million impressions, Kenny Chesney pops his 14th chart-topper (4-1) on Hot Country Songs with "Better As a Memory" (BNA). His first, "She's Got It All," came in 1997, and since then, Chesney's No. 1 pile is second only to Tim McGraw, who has 17.

The new track marks the third No. 1 from "Just Who I Am: Poets & Pirates." "Never Wanted Nothing More" led for five weeks last summer, and "Don't Blink" followed with four weeks at No. 1 in the fall. Third single

"Shiftwork," with George Strait, peaked at No. 2 in February.

Chesney prevails in one of the closest audience dust-ups in the chart's recent history. "Memory" draws 28 million audience impressions and pushes Carrie Underwood's "Last Name" to No. 2, even as the latter title bullets with 27.9 million impressions.

Lower on the chart, Brad Paisley's "Waitin' On a Woman" is the Hot Shot Debut at No. 51 (1 -Wade Jessen million impressions).

SUGARLAND MAKES FASTEST CLIMB TO TOP 10

Sugarland achieves its quickest top 10 climb to date, as "All I Want to Do" surges 3.1 million impressions in its fifth week on Hot Country Songs (13-10). The new single tops an eight-week top 10 sprint, set when the act's "Something More" jumped 14-10 in 2005. "More" rose as high as No. 2, where it held for five straight weeks starting in the Aug. 6, 2005, issue.

Sugarland's quick rise with "Do" is the second-fastest top 10 climb so far this year, outpaced only by George Strait's "I Saw God Today," which clocked four weeks to hit that level in the March 15 issue. The nearest title with fewer chart weeks than "Do" is Strait's "Troubadour," which hops 32-25 in its fourth week. Brad Paisley owns the youngest top 40 title with "Waitin' On a Woman," which jumps 51-34 in its second week.

"Do" also bows on the Billboard Hot 100, Sugarland's eighth single to reach -Wade Jessen history on singles list (see Hot Box, page 49), album spends 23rd week at No. 1. At 103 weeks, only Rodney Atkins' No. 24 set has more chart weeks.

July 4 replay of Chesney's June 13 summer concert gig on NBC's "Today" spurs Greatest Gainer (up 2,000 copies).

Holiday appeal pushes compilation up 90%, good for Pacesetter honors (4,000 copies sold).

As Keith's new power ballad takes off at radio (see Hot Country Songs, above), hits package spikes 2,000 units, grabs Greatest Gainer nod.

Second installment of countrified Disney themes is Hot Shot Debut (7,000 copies sold). First collection peaked at No. 17 in January 1997.

still runs 75 titles deep at billboard.biz, where Big & Rich rope the chart's Pacesetter award on a 10% gain. John Rich judges on NBC's "Nastrville Star."

Album's 43,000copy debut makes Kellie Pickler the sixth artist in the Nielsen SoundScan era to bow at No. 1 on Top Country Albums with her first two studio sets. Previous talents who also accomplished that feat: Wynonna, LeAnn Rimes, Gretchen Wilson, Miranda Lambert and Carrie Underwood.

Faith Hill's first vuletide set opens with 11,000 copies, good enough for a No. 2 start on Top Holiday Albums on billboard.biz. Last year's sole top 10 seasonal Country debut, Toby Keith's "Classic Christmas," occurred on the Nov. 3, 2007, chart.
